

Sylvania Recreation is offering a unique opportunity for High School Boys who are interested in becoming an official for our youth lacrosse program! Individuals who successfully complete the training program will be recognized as an 'approved' Sylvania Recreation program lacrosse official for the approaching 2017 Spring season. The program will include classroom and on field training that will aid in preparing approved officials with a solid foundation of officiating fundamentals and mechanics prior to officiating the Spring season. For more information contact Rob Mahon at (419) 882-1500.
